JAMES SABEY AND JANE
BOWER, ELIZA McCULLUN
AND SARAH TONGE

James Sabey, son of Tingey Sabey of Bradfordshire, England, was born May 30, 1834. He came to Utah in 1856 in a hand-cart company.

He married Jane Bower in England, who came to Utah with him. Their first home was in Lehi, Utah. His first wife died there.

W BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

He assisted in building canals, roads and in developing the country. Later he moved to Wasatch County, where he farmed and raised sheep. He lived by the roadside and was a friend to all that came by. He loved his fellow man and was ever ready to help him.

He died April 12, 1910, at Wallsburg, Utah.

Their children: Joseph, Sarah Jane, John and William.

His second wife was Eliza McCullun of Scotland. Their children: Mary Hannah, Thomas, Ann, James Jr., Ephraim, Charles, Moroni, and Eugene.

He settled in Lehi, then moved to Charleston and Wallsburg, where he assisted in building canals and roads and in developing the country.

Sarah Tonge Sabey, third wife of James Sabey, was born September 17, 1864, and died February 24, 1939, at Salt Lake. She had her ninth birthday on the sea, coming to Utah from England. They were on the water six weeks. It was a long voyage. All were tired and sick when they arrived here. Although but nine years old, she had worked in a factory two years.

Her first home was in American Fork. There they went through hardships and hard work to get their home started.

She washed on a washboard and did all the sewing by hand. She was always willing to help her family and friends.

Their children: Maude Alice, Roy, Jay, Lacy, Peter, Christie and Robert. 980
